Summary

- The Services Account income for the year was $50,217. Major donations were made to the Trish Foundation, the Rotary Foundation $5830 and Children's Medical Research $3000, ShelterBox $2400 and Downs Syndrome $2000.
- Allan Petersen was the Sergeant.
- Connie Galletta and Shirley Del Prado organised the Guest Speakers and Angelo Franco produced the weekly Bulletin.
- Ray McCluskie continued to refine the web site and Rod McDougall and Bradley Ayres were the chief photographers.
- Once again, the golf day raised $20000 for the Trish Foundation and Ray Wilson organised the District Golf Day at Strathfield.
- Ross and Joan Brown were generous hosts for a fellowship day at Yarramalong.
- Brian Johnson accepted the job of running Club Raffles at short notice but by the end of the year he'd raised $11000.
- Joe Campisi looked after Youth Service and this year saw the first students attending RYDA, where students are confronted with the harsh reality of what can happen when you disregard the road rules and drive in a reckless manner.
- Kevin Beltrame took care of the Interact club at Meriden; they also raised a lot of money through gelato and cake stalls and a school dance.
- Paolo Giammarco was Vocational Service Director and 'Police Officer of the Year' and 'Pride of Workmanship' evenings were held.
- In International Bradley Ayres was a member of the district team who selected the team to visit District 3340 in Thailand. The Byrns and the Trues entertained the inbound Team from Thailand. Warren Bond's visit concerning Malaria eradication resulted in $1000 being donated for the purchase of bed nets.
- Other fundraising events during the year were a Trivia Night at Meriden run by Peter Foss and Connie Galletta hosted 'Pearls on Show' both very successful.
